

Thomas Draguhn

LL.M.
Rechtsanwalt

Location: Dusseldorf

Contact: +49 211 38800-0 · draguhn@buse.de

Kompetenzen: Corporate Law and M&A

Schwerpunkte: The European Company (SE)

Thomas Draguhn works as a lawyer and counsel at Buse Heberer Fromm's Düsseldorf office. He is a member of the Corporate Law and M&A practice group. He focuses on advising national and international clients across all areas of corporate and commercial law, M&A transactions and restructuring, as well as in matters concerning foundations and trusts.

Another main activity of his is the consultation and support of companies with a European company (SE) foundation, where he offers extensive expertise.

Furthermore, Thomas Draguhn assists managing directors and board members in the area of liability. He is also involved in corporate housekeeping and related legal services, as well as in sports law issues.

Before joining Buse Heberer Fromm, he accumulated four years' experience as a lawyer at one of the world's leading auditing and advisory firms.

Publikationen

Reasons for choice of European Company (SE) as legal form and related shaping options for German unincorporated and incorporated companies.

Seminars

Thomas Draguhn gives seminars on the topic of the European company (SE), particularly on issues regarding its foundation and establishment. In this context, his lectures also focus on more practical aspects.

Furthermore, he advises management boards on questions concerning liability and compliance, issues on which he also holds seminars and trainings.

Web Version: <https://buse.de/en/professionals/thomas-draguhn/>